From The Crown

Unto the most gracious gentles of Our most noble Kingdom, We Irel and Ileana send most joyous greetings. We hope this missive finds all in good health and spirits.

As you read these words We shall be furiously preparing for a very busy reign. These preparations are greatly aided by those in Our retinue. Without their help, Our time on this the most noble of thrones would be most difficult. They are most deserving of Our heartfelt thanks.

Our thanks also go out to all of those fine gentles who made Our Coronation a joyous and merry occasion. First, We would like to thank Mistress Kathryn for her organization, and to all that worked to make the event the success that it was. To those gentles who gifted Us with their works and labors in the arts and sciences, Our warmest thanks. Your generosity shall be spread among the known world.

We would remind all of those interested in the upcoming Crown lists, that We are asking for letters of interest. As of now we have only received one letter. We hope that more gentles are interested in becoming Our heir. As we stated in our last missive, the lists will be open until the time of the starting of the tournament. We ask for those who would compete for the honor of sitting on the throne of the Outlands, to send us letters stating this interest. These letters are for Us to contemplate on and will not be published or distributed in any way.

We look forward to meeting all of those new members of the populace. As we have been busing Ourselves with mundane matters in recent times, we have not kept up with the massive growth in Our lands.

With this growth also comes the need to teach those new members of Our populace. We would charge that all of Ours peers and nobles take those new members in hand and teach them in the ways of honor and chivalry. Lead them by your good examples and fine works.

Following is a listing of Our retinue. This not a complete list and would welcome suggestions or offers by those who would have a wish to serve the crown and the Outlands. Please direct those requests to Ourselves at your earliest convenience.

Yours always in service to the Outlands,

Irel — Righ

Search for the Golden Arrow II

June 21-23

Greetings all ye kind people of the Outlands. Lasts year's event was such a success that we insisted on doing it again. Yes, the Grand Shire of Plattesfordham wishes to invite one and all to the Search for the Golden Arrow II to be held June 21, 22, 23. Although last year's event was a bit wet we had/have the facilities to accommodate everyone from the elements. This year's event is at the same site as the last one and we are told that there are more buildings open to us this year. We will be having Archery, Fighting, Fencing, Arts & Science competition and a quest. Since we often have caravans of actors passing through this region we plan to ask them to entertain during the feast the evening of the 22. The sight is totally wheelchair accessible and placed on Casper mountain with running cold and hot water, showers and cabins with heat That are available upon request but would like mention of this with a preregistration. We can sleep approximately 100 people indoors although there is a campsite available as well. This site is discreetly wet and merchants are welcome.

For information and reservations call Luke at (307) 266-4924

We will again be looking for the most cavalier garb, the best non-cavalier garb, most sumptuous and most decadent picnic set-ups.

Site fee will be $3.00. Chilled teas and lemonade, fruits, and cakes will be provided for your enjoyment. Site is damp with beer allowed in non-glass containers. Berkeley Park is located at the corner of Tennyson and 46th, just east of Lakeside Amusement Park.

To my Beloved,

Sorrow is the predator
I shall fight till doom comes,
In the light of the pale moonlight,
In your love, my sword run.

I will take this battle,
to the depth of the seas,
To the towers of the sky,
and the forest full of trees.

No man controls my limits,
No man controls my destiny,
And from under the shadow of stars,
No man will take you away from me.

And never will I surrender,
My Love I will always show,
Till the sun no longer shines,
And rivers no longer flow.

But in your arms I fnd shelter,
In your eyes, I stop to bleed,
Sorrow has no meaning here,
The predator has no need.

Life may not be long enough,
To hold you close my dear,
But if Love is what we hold in our hearts,
Then eternity is our to steer!

"O most noble Outlanders" quoth the defender, "draw near! Will be a honor to see thee, a pleasure to hear."

Defender of the Lore of Blaiddwyn

July 20

Warriors of the Outlands, the Incipient College of Blaiddwyn in the glorious Barony of al-Barran does cry for your help! A great and terrible Dragon has been eating through our library and threatens to devour our precious Lore of Blaiddwyn! Our current Defender, Oengus of Greymist, has valiantly held the beast at bay for many months, but, alas, he grows weary under the continual onslaught so a new and stronger, (if that is indeed possible) Defender must be found to battle this vicious creature and at last bring about an end to the threat of the horrible BookWyrm.

The challenge will be met on Saturday, July 20th at the YWCA camp in al-Barran. (See map below for directions.) The site will open at 9 A.M. and will close at Midnight. No camping is allowed. If you wish, you may arrange for crash space by calling the Baronial Hospitaller, Balthazar, at (505) 266-4044.

There will be three heavy weapons tourneys and three light weapons tourneys starting at 11 A.M. Each tourney will be fun, unique, and creative. Prizes will be awarded to the winner of each tourney. The winner of the Argent tourney, the third in both categories, will be awarded with a piece of fine silver! The first, second, and third place winners in each tourney will each be allotted points. Whichever individual has the most points overall will be declared the new Defender of the Lore of Blaiddwyn!

A children's pavilion is being graciously provided by Lady Albreana to entertain your young lords and ladies whilst you attend to the tourneys.

After the tourneys there will be a Hunkerhausen competition and a four-way chess tournament. A game room will also be provided to relax after the fighting and escape the afternoon heat. In the evening, their Excellencies Needham and Susan will be holding a Baronial court.

Immediately following court, a Quest will begin which must include a heavy weapons fighter, a light weapons fighter, and two children as well as one or two other people. At the end of the quest, the Defender of the Lore will face off against the BookWyrm that threatens us in whichever form it takes. Whether it will be the great, roaring, filthy beast that is its natural form (for the heavy) or the sly, sneaky, human form it polymorphs into to sneak into our library (for the light).

After the quest, there will be a feast of celebration! The feast is potluck. The feast fee is a contribution of food. A main course of Dragon Meat will be provided by the College (by way of the Defender's victory, of course.) Along with the feast will be an Open Tavern! Brewers of the Outlands please make what you can for the enjoyment of the populace. A prize will be awarded to the drink that proves most popular.

After it grows dark outside, a Bardic will begin. It is at the Bardic that our Lore truly prospers. Bards, please write an original song, story or poem that includes references to the College of Blaiddwyn and the Silver Wolf that is our symbol. If you wish, you may now also include references to Dragon, (BookWyrm), slaying, but the first two qualifiers must still be met. The winner of this endevour will have their work transcribed into the Blaiddwyn Book of Lore for all posterity.

Site fee is $8.00 for members. Children under 16 are free. No Pets Allowed.

Lonely Mountain Defender

July 26-28

Nineteen years ago, dragons threatened the peaceful shire of Anlieplic Dun, known as the Lonely Mountain. Fires raged, smoke billowed, and our citizens cowered in fear. A call went out through the known world, a plea for fighters to come forward in battle to choose one who could defend us against the fire- breathing beasts. Thus came about the first Lonely Mountain Defender, and in all of the years since Anlieplic Dun has been well-defended and the dragons driven from our mountain.

Alas, the dragons have come back in force this summer. Fires have burned all too close to our fair shire, and our current defended is singed and smoke- stained. It is time to chose an heir to the position, a brave soul who can stand for yet another year against our dragon enemies!

We, the citizens of Anlieplic Dun, invite one and all to the 18th Lonely Mountain Defender on the weekend of July 26, 27, and 28. Participate in our many fighting and non-fighting tournaments to choose the one who will stand against evil for us! We will have heavy and light fighting, as well as our usual array of games for nonfighters. Join us, relax, and be merry. But we ask that all who come to our tourney be very aware of the dragons and their ways. Any manner of fire will attract the beasts, so we must at this time plan on a cold site. No fires of any kind will be allowed, not even the contained fires of stoves nor cigarettes (except with the confines of your own wagon), not even enough for morning coffee. To ease this discomfort, we the citizens of Anlieplic Dun will offer the basic makings for cold meat sandwiches in place of our usual Saturday night feast. Bring the rest of your meal and join us in the meadow so that the warmth of fellowship can make up for the lack of hot food. (It is remotely possible that these restrictions may be eased before the event if the Monsoon season starts early. In the normal course of things, afternoon rains are the rule of this event, so we suggest our guests be prepared for rain as well as drought.)

As ever is the case, the site is also without water of any kind. Please bring plenty of your own, and extra as well for the waterbearers and any who may not have read these words. The citizens of Anlieplic Dun have no water buffalo to bring extra to the site, so you are on your own for this necessity.

Site fee for this year's Defender will be $6 per person, $3 for children 6-12 years of age, and free for children under 6. Make checks payable to SCA- Anlieplic Dun. Merchants are asked to donate a prize for one of the events in place of a merchanting fee.

From the Seneschal

Baron Lambert de Sur

Good Gentles:

Effective on the First of July, the new SCA Waiver Policy will take effect. The new policy is essentially as I distributed to the Group Seneschals in a letter last Summer with copies of the new waiver forms. The new policy requires everyone attending an SCA event to have completed a waiver containing the text adopted by the Board of Directors. Adult and minor members with a current blue SCA membership card are not required to sign an additional waiver at the event. For purposes of the Waiver Policy, an event is defined as any recreation function announced in a local or Kingdom newsletter. Business meetings, demos, guild meetings, dance practices, or planning sessions are specifically excluded. Waivers are required at fighter practices or functions at which combat-related activities take place, regardless of what other activities may take place.

Non-members or members without a blue card are required to complete a waiver in order to participate. Either individual or roster waivers may be used for adults; individual waivers are required for minors. The language contained on the individual and roster waivers must be as approved by the Board of Directors; no alterations are permitted. The individual minor waivers should be printed on colored paper to distinguish them from the adult waivers. Pads of the minor waivers are available from the SCA Central Office for $5.00 per 100; locally generated copies of the waivers with the correct wording are also acceptable.

The local Seneschal will send the originals of all waivers to the Member Services Office in Milpitas on a monthly basis for storage. The waivers should be separated by event with each grouping clearly labeled with: the group and Kingdom names; the name of the event; and the date of the event. The Member Services will maintain the waivers twenty years for minors and seven years for adults. Copies of waivers do not need to be maintained at the local or Kingdom level. The local Seneschal must also ensure that current copies of the Organizational Handbook and Kingdom Law are available at each event.

If you have any questions about the Waiver Policy, please contact the Kingdom Seneschal, the Member Services Office, or our Ombudsman.

Enough! Summer is upon us; tournaments, camping, and revels abound. Let's go out and have fun!

From the MOAS

Lady Marie d'Acre

In addition to the many A&S activities being held at the Thirtieth Year Celebration mentioned in Mayís Outlandish Herald, there will also be a Laurelís Prize Tourney. Non-Laurels from all Kingdoms are being encouraged to display their work. Laurels and other Peerages will be invited to walk through, give advice and see what is being done throughout the Known World.

Space will be limited and Kingdoms are being allowed only ten participants each. A Childrenís Display is being planned as well. If you are interested in entering, or would like more information, contact your local A&S Officer or myself as soon as possible. The Tournamentís coordinator must have the names of entrants by June 1.

A site has yet to be confirmed for the October Kingdom A&S Collegium. If you would like to host this event first contact your local A&S Officer to make sure this information has not changed. Event bid forms are available from them, your local Seneschal or myself. Collegiums can be a lot of fun, and are not that difficult to autocrat; especially with the number of volunteers already offering to help.

In Service to the Outlands,

From the Old Chronicler

Lord Alwyn of Kittisford

As you hopefully noticed on the back cover of this issue, THL Helena will be taking over The Outlandish Herald as of the next issue (that's the July issue). Helena brings a lot of experience to the job, as she was Kingdom Chronicler before I was, and I wish her great sucess and lots of fun in producing the OH. Please send all future submissions, annoucements, ads, and trade copies to Helena (any compliments or complaints about this issue can still be sent to me).

I wish to thank all those who made it possible for me to produce the OH for the past 19 months. Special recognizion goes to Mistress Elaina de Sinistre, my able deputy, who rescued me by producing two issues of the newsletter when I was swamped; and of course to my Lady Tatiana, who not only kept me mostly sane during my tenure but also organized the mailing of the *OH*every month.

I want to give my greatest thanks to those who have supported the *OH*financially over the past 19 months. The Barony of Dragonsspine was the biggest contributor (over $1000), but that should not diminsh the contributions of the Barony of Unser Hafen, the Shire of Windkeep, and the other groups that helped out. Those individuals who contributed out of their own pockets are also to be greatly commended, and in fact for the first time contributions by individuals matched the contributions by groups – a remarkable show of support for your newsletter.

Having thanked all those who helped so much, I must now ask for more. The OH once again needs your financial support. If any groups or individuals can help out, please send your money to Helena, and I'm sure she will bless your name.

It's been a lot of fun being your Chronicler.

I remain,

Alwyn

From the Outgoing Scribe

Mistress Joella of Blue Lion's Keep

Greetings Unto the Populace of the Outlands,

In my last letter to you as Kingdom Scribe, I would like to thank those multitalented people who helped produce all the wonderful scrolls during this reign of Their Majesties Artan IIIII and Aziza. In many cases, the work was done by members of two Guilds; the one guided by THL Wyndylyn Leanb na Doinnean out of Caerthe and our newest one out of Nahrun Kabirun, guided by Giles. I do not have the individuals' names that worked on specific scrolls. If you did work on one, please contact Tatiana who is the new Kingdom scribe and let her know your name and number. Other scribes who worked this reign were Monika von Zell, Rishiqa, Auguaire Uisnagh, Medhbh o'Duibhdabhoireann of Clann Tarf, Allegra Beati, Nfirianna Wrenn, Josette Duron Claudin, Katrine, Elenfea of Starwood and Drahomira Jaroslavna. These talented gentles deserve my heartfelt thanks as well as the admiration of all the the beauty that has helped make the Outlands the Kingdom it is.

ATTENTION: All scribes attending Thirty Year Celebration. There will be contests for Calligraphy and Illumination as well as slides shows, panels and displays. For more information contact either me,

From the New Scribe

Lady Tatiana Pavlovna Sokolova

Unto the populace of the Outlands, Greetings.

It is my pleasure to serve the Crown and Kingdom as the new Kingdom Scribe. We owe our gratitude to Mistress Joella who served so well in this office for so long. I would like to thank all those who produced scrolls during the reign of Their (former) Majesties Artan IIIII and Aziza, and thank Countess Ælflæd for assistance in compiling this listing. If you are not on this list, and should be, please let me know.

Their Majesties Irel and Ileana have requested that in place of King and Queen, the titles Righ and Ban-Righ be used on scrolls for their reign, also His Majesty would prefer that no numeral II follow his name in scroll texts.

For all those who made promissory scrolls for Coronation, thank you! Please contact me so that I have you listed in my records for this reign.
